

Please stop VRS providers like Sorenson from limiting us to using only their service if we have their equipment. I should be able to use any provider I choose. I don't have this problem with Hands On Video Relay and CSD. Both agencies truly are promoting communication access, and not focusing on forcing me to use their service.